

Trinso supplies GiTRiX to The Source Group

Contract with The Source Group was signed - Trinso will deploy together with GiT Consult more than 20 licenses in 3 offices in Czech Republic.

Trinso serves as technology and solution supplier for deployment of GiTRiX product for our customer, The Source Group in Czech offices. GiTRiX will help to streamline the communication between offices in Ostrava, Brno, and Prague. Its server part is deployed in highly available secured server hosting

About The Source Group

The Source Group is recruitment company providing relocation & recruitment services for companies moving to CEE countries. With its head office in Prague, Source is currently situated in two Czech regions and one Slovak. With over six years experience in project managing and recruiting for international companies in CEE, Source has all the skills required to support manufacturing, strategic services and Research & Development facilities with the three key services that are:

- Recruitment
- Representation
- Strategic Services

About Trinso s.r.o

Company was founded in 2003 serving as service provider and system integrator. Focusing to deliver the maximum ratio of benefit/cost for its client, Trinso adopted Microsoft technologies for its mainstream development as it offers superior productivity.

For more information please visit www.trinso.sk.